

Binti and the pebbles

Binti comes home.
What have you got in your pockets?
Pebbles!
Look Mummy, look!

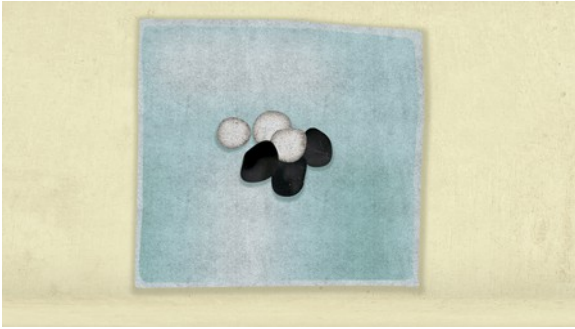

They are pretty, Mummy says.
Where did you find them, Binti?
Easy peasy! says Binti. On the street.
I am going to wash my pebbles.

Binti takes off her coat and goes to the bathroom.
She puts the pebbles under the tap.
Black pebbles and grey pebbles.
She turns the tap on.

Binti washes each pebble.

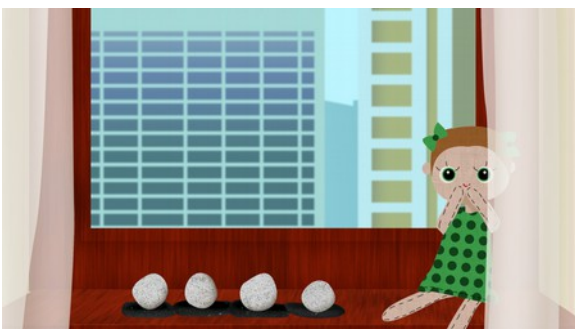

Then, she puts the pebbles on the towel.
All done!
Yes, the pebbles are all done.
What now, Binti?

Binti takes the pebbles to the livingroom.
Poppy is sitting on the windowsill.
I am gonna build a castle, says Binti. Look!
Binti puts the black pebbles on the window sill.
That is the wall of the castle.

Then, she takes the white pebbles.
Careful! Poppy shouts.
Binti is very careful.
She puts the white pebbles
on the wall of the castle.
They are the towers of the castle.

Oh! But who lives in the castle?
Poppy asks.

Easy peasy, our pebble friends.
They are tiny pebble friends.
You can't see them
because they are magic pebble friends.

But what does Poppy see?
Peekeboo! There's one.
And another one. And another one.
Poppy laughs. I can see them!
Peekeboo!
And you?
Can you see the peekeboo pebble friends?
