

Boris and Binti dress up

Boris is happy.
Because Binti is coming to play.
And Mummy has got a surprise.

Look: a bag of old clothes.
Old clothes to play with, Mummy says.
For us? Boris asks.
For you! Mummy says.

That is the doorbell.
That is Binti.
Come quick Binti.
We are going to dress up.

And Poppy? Binti asks.
Put her next to Bear.
Binti puts Poppy next to Bear on the table.

Boris takes the clothes out of the bag.
Mummy's nighty.
Daddy's trousers.
A hat with flowers.
A shirt with buttons.

Boris dresses up first.
He pulls up the trousers and he puts on the hat.
But the hat is too big.
I can't see anything! Boris shouts.
The hat is too big.

Binti puts on the nighty.
It is white and very long.
It has three red buttons.
Binti can't pull the nighty over her head.
The nighty is buttoned up.

What now, Binti?
Binti gets behind the couch.
Eek! A ghost! she shouts.

Where? Where? Boris takes off his hat.
The nighty jumps up from behind the couch.
The nighty waves its arms.
Eek! A ghost! Boris shouts.

Then, Binti pulls the nighty over her head.
Pffww! There is no ghost!
Only Binti.
